Dear Members of the Sarvodaya Family,

Let me wish you all a very happy 2019. In the aftermath of the heinous Pulwama attack, let us pledge to remain united in the face of such challenges to India's freedom and territorial integrity.

SERWA is pleased to present, for the first time, a new glossy, hard bound telephone directory for our residents. SERWA would like to express deep appreciation to the Publisher – Silent Partners Inc. The conceptualization, layout and execution were the brainchild of our respected Treasurer, Shri Anil Kumar Goyal, his spouse Smt. Ila Goyal and a small dedicated team from 'Anil K. Goyal and Associates, Chartered Accountants'. The commendable efforts by SERWA Secretary Smt. Shafali Mittal and Joint Secretary Smt. Malini Dhir completed the team and ensured a new look to the directory.

Sarvodaya Enclave is fortunate in enjoying the consistent support and goodwill of our elected representatives, Hon'able MLA Shri Somnath Bharati, our MCD Councilor Shri Anil Sharma and our Hon'able Member of Parliament Smt. Meenakshi Lekhi. SERWA would like to thank them for their goodwill messages on this occasion.

As SERWA comes to the end of its mandate, let me underline that February 2016 witnessed the 'Awakening' of our colony. The change started with all of us coming together and making it eco-friendly, clean and safe with the development of a great community spirit manifesting itself in myriad community activities. We promised that we would be your emissaries of change. We hope that we have lived up to our promises.

Swami Vivekananda at the Chicago 'World Parliament of Religions' in 1893 reminded us:

"They alone live, who live for others,

We reap what we sow: we are the makers of our own fate. The wind is blowing; those vessels whose sails are unfurled catch it, and go forward on their way, but those which have their sails furled do not catch the wind. Is that the fault of the wind? We make our own destiny."

Let us work together for the common good for the benefit of our beautiful colony.

Jai Hind.

MESSAGE

I am glad to learn that Residents Welfare Association of Sarvodaya Enclave is bringing out a directory of the residents carrying all the updated details of the occupants of houses falling within the jurisdiction of the said RWA. Decentralization of power has been one of the core principles on which Aam Aadmi Party was built and was voted to power in Delhi and a strong Residents Welfare Association proves to be an effective channel for such decentralization. In my experience as member of legislative assembly (MLA) Malviya Nagar your RWA under your able leadership has proved to be an effective channel for my work and for goods of Delhi Government to reach to the last person and I wish to congratulate you for the same. Your RWA is part of Mohalla 4 and has proved to be an effective partner of Mohalla experiment through which I as area MLA have succeeded to establish a direct connect with members of your RWA along with residents of Sarvpriya Vihar, Kalu Sarai, Sarvpriya Apartments, Azad Apartments, Vijay Mandal Enclave and Bhavisya Nidhi Enclave to ensure my availability, answerability and accountability transcending all barriers of time and distance.

I wish you and all members of RWA good luck and a Happy New Year 2019 !

दो Mutthi Aahaar

PARVAAH is an NGO run by students. They undertake various projects to empower and aid needy people. For their new project, "दो Mutthi Aahaar", they have joined hands with the Sarvodaya Enclave Residents' Welfare Association (SERWA). Through this project, they aim to provide grains to the poor and the underprivileged. On Sunday, 7th August, 2016 children will be going door-to-door collecting 'दो Mutthi Aahaar' from 8:30am to 9:30am. With a humble attempt to accomplish the vision - "No one sleeps hungry". The collected food grains are distributed among the needy living in the nearby areas.

Please gather at the RWA office on Friday, 5th of August to submit your registration forms and to collect PARVAAH T-Shirts.

Children are requested to assemble at the Sarvodaya Mandir (Adjacent to Gurdwara) on Sunday, 7th August, 2016 at 8:00am for the drive.

CELEBRATING DUSSEHRA WITH A DIFFERENCE

RENUKA NARAYANAN

A few days ago on Dussehra, which many of us also call Vijayadashami, the Victorious Tenth, I saw something I had never seen before – a very modern, well-behaved Dussehra fete in a colony in Delhi. From what I gathered, the fete was taking place after a gap of many years. For one, the Delhi bomb blasts by the ‘unfriends’ during our festivals had initially been a put-off and in the years that followed, the prime movers had got busy with their children’s important examinations and so on. But the colony committee seemed to have regrouped splendidly this year.

I almost didn’t go because I no longer relate to smoky burning effigies. In fact, I felt that if I did go, I absolutely had to wear a badge or a tee proclaiming ‘Je suis Kumbhakaran’ (I am Kumbhakaran) because after a lifetime of trying to understand the Ramayana, it was a Facebook joke that enlightened me that the one character who seemed to have had his life sorted was that gentle giant who peacefully ate and slept his way through existence.

However I was very glad that I did go for I saw all kinds of heartening sights. It was slightly startling at first to see an MNC pizza chain’s stall at a Dussehra fete, but why not, really, something for everybody. Good old Nirula’s ice-cream was there, too, an authentic bit of modern Delhi, while excellent freshly made desi treats like besan-ka-chila, dahivada and bervi-alu flew off the counter at the Old Delhi Chaat stall to which I was irresistibly drawn. I overheard uniquely Indian foodie grumbles like “Golgappe mein jaan nahin hai” (“These golgappas lack life”) and saw strangers helpfully hand each other napkins and spoons. I saw long-lost friends and got to wish them ‘Happy Dussehra’ and enjoy my snacks al fresco with them in the park in the soft October air.

Pleasant bhajans were being played at just the right volume and NGO stalls sold pretty gift-bags, diyas and jewellery boxes (Dipavali is on October 29-30). I spotted a significant act of inclusion - a well-located stall for Kashmiri shawl-sellers next to the quilt-and-linen stall.

A bevy of gorgeous young ladies arrived beautifully dressed in lehngas for garba and dandiya and I actually saw young boys politely jump up to give chairs to the seniors.

Amidst these genteel happenings, I noticed that the Spirit of Dussehra Past lingered with a twist. The superhit of the evening was the man selling toy swords, bows and arrows, the same as in my childhood and at any country fair. He did brisk business with the pre-teens and it was a new, interesting sight for me to see little girls marching around with toy weapons, with their daddies teaching them how to hold and string the bow - and, of course, not shoot arrows except in the safe part of the lawn.

Most astounding was the laser Ramayana on a large screen with excellent images and sound, in place of the Big Three. We had the satisfaction of the holy fable without the fireworks and pollution. Way to go, Vijayadashami.

दोस्तों!

एक टुकड़ा जमीन का उबड़ खाबड़ यूँ ही पड़ा था ! सूखी घास ओढ़े कुछ धूल कूड़ा भी उसमे मढ़ा था !
लेकिन पेड़ उसमे पीपल का एक सुन्दर बड़ा था ! बहुत साल से वो वहाँ अकेला खड़ा था !

हाँ, मैं वही पेड़ हूँ !

पहले मिट्टी से लिपी मेरे नीचे चौपाल थी
आजू बाजू हरे भरे खेतों की ढाल थी
बचपन जवानी पूछती नूढ़ों का हाल बाल थी
मेरी ओट, मेरी छाया में जिन्दगी चलती दिन रात थी !

हाँ, मैं वही पेड़ हूँ !

बहुत सालों से अकेला खुद से ही बातें करता हूँ
दुःख सुख में आपके मौन ही मिला रहता हूँ
हँसता हूँ सिसकता हूँ आहें भरता हूँ
शुक झूम आपको बुलाने की कोशिश करता हूँ !

हाँ, मैं वही पेड़ हूँ !

मैं खुश हूँ की मैं अब उपवन में हूँ
एक टुकड़ा जमीन का जो उबड़ खाबड़ यूँ ही पड़ा था
मैं उसे अब सुन्दर समतल देख रहा हूँ
सूखी घास ओढ़े कुछ धूल कूड़ा जो उसमे मढ़ा था
अब साफ उसे मैं हरा मरा फिर देख रहा हूँ
देखो, मैं राह आपकी अब फिर देख रहा हूँ

हाँ, मैं वही पेड़ हूँ !

मैं खुश हूँ की मैं अब उपवन में हूँ
आओ मेरे संग इस उपवन में चौपाल जगाएँ
आजू बाजू हरी घास में कसरत कर जायें
पूछ हालचाल अपने नूढ़ों का उनकी सेहत लीटाये
शहर की दौड़ घूप से परे नवजीवन
इस उपवन मे पायें !

आओ उपवन में पाने नवजीवन

Filing returns makes you a responsible citizen of your nation.

ADVANTAGES OF FILING TAX RETURNS

This can boost your chances of getting a suitable home loan if you apply for one in the future.

Some credit card companies demand proof of tax returns before issuing a card.

As income is recorded by the tax department, it is easier for individuals to enter into future transactions with minimal complications.

In cases when you want to claim adjustment against past losses, a return is compulsory.
